

EVANGELIST BROWN SETS
FORTH TYPE IDEAL WOMANPreaches to Women Saturday Afternoon, Drawing Lesson
From Shumanite Woman Who Had a Prophet's
Chamber—What Repentance Means

LARGE SUNDAY ATTENDANCE AT TABERNACLE

Strong Sermon on the Sowing of Wild Oats and the Awful Harvest Reaped by the Sinner and Those Near and Dear to Him—Evils of Cards and Dancing

In spite of the fact that his invitation to the Saturday afternoon meeting was for women and girls only, it was a good-sized audience which faced Evangelist Brown when he arose to speak on the "Ideal Woman," after Otis Ironmonger had sung most beautifully "Oh, To Be Kept for Jesus." He founded his sermon on the good Shumanite woman who persuaded her husband to build a prophet's chamber for Elisha. He dwelt on the loss the average home suffers today in no longer having a prophet's chamber. Said he:

"The most potent factor for the salvation of the nations is the life of its women. No nation will ever rise higher than the level of its womanhood, and no nation can ever sink lower than its womanhood." He dwelt on dancing, and card playing and other forms of pleasure-seeking and the great evils of the day, and upon the responsibility of women for the moral and spiritual welfare of husband and children. Said he:

"One of the storm clouds that threaten the world today is the one-room apartment house where you pull everything out of the wall. Over the door is the sign: 'No children admitted, Dogs, cats and parrots allowed.' Anyone who enters here in all probability will have to commit murder to stay."

The Saturday evening service in the tabernacle was what Evangelist Brown called a "nativity service," at which the men and women in the audience were called upon to state the place of their nativity and the place of their surrender to God. There were many responses, some reporting from far-off Russia and Sweden, and before the preacher began his sermon he announced that the tally showed 30 states and 14 foreign countries were represented.

FORD AUTO SMASHED BY THREE-CAR BURBANK FLYERMiss Eugenie Lindsey Killed and Her Sister, Sarah, Seriously Injured This Morning at Los Feliz and Brand
When P. E. Car Crashes Into Machine

Misses Eugenie and Sarah Lindsey, aged 22 and 20 respectively, of 426 South Manhattan avenue, Los Angeles, were driving over to Occidental College this morning in a Ford coupe, and arrived at the Los Feliz crossing of Brand just as the Burbank flyer was sweeping down the track. A number of people were standing at the side of the track waiting for the train to follow the flyer, and it is thought the driver of the auto, Miss Eugenie, who could see the approaching train for some distance, deduced from that that it would come to a stop, so she drove on. The Ford was fairly on the track when the leading car reached the crossing, and the impact was terrific. The Ford was slammed against the trolley pole, tearing off a large splinter, and then thrown fully 30 feet farther, a shapeless wreck as far as the body was concerned. The train was brought to a stop within a block and the trainmen reached the two girls very quickly. Both were hastily drawn from the wreckage and rushed to the Glendale sanitarium in L. G. Scovern's ambulance. Miss Eugenie, it was found, had suffered a basal fracture of the skull and was bruised and cut in many places. Miss Sarah had both collarbones broken and was also badly cut and bruised. Her injuries are not so serious.

The parents of the young ladies were notified immediately and were soon at the bedside of their daughters.

NATIONAL GOVERNMENT
RECOGNIZES GLENDALE

Glendallians should be interested in the announcement that battalion headquarters for the National Guard are to be established in this city. Capt. Thos. D. Watson, who is the commanding officer of "Glendale's Own" National Guard company of infantry, has been authorized by Adjutant General Borree to organize a battalion headquarters in Glendale. This will give Glendale not only the headquarters of the battalion, which consists of four companies, but also a battalion commander, holding the rank of major, a first lieutenant as adjutant.

The personnel of the headquarters company consists principally of specialists, such as signalmen, radio men, runners, dispatch riders, motor riders, quite a few of the men besides the officers being mounted. The non-commissioned staff also rates higher, as they have in addition to the sergeants a sergeant-major, the total enlisted strength being 41 men.

Glendale can be congratulated on being given this opportunity. Capt. Watson is now receiving enlistments and urges those who desire to enroll to hurry, as he hopes to complete the organization within ten days so the company can be federalized at once, and be able to go to the 15-day encampment which is to be at Yosemite national park instead of at Santa Cruz, as first announced.

The men as they enlist will be attached to the present company that they may be equipped with uniforms, etc., and also be placed on the payroll.

MAY-DAY PARTY AT HOME OF
H. N. FOWLERFriends From Glendale, Los Angeles, Hollywood and Other Nearby Cities

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Fowler of Montrose, were hosts on Saturday evening at a most enjoyable May day party, entertaining 80 or more of their friends from Glendale, Los Angeles, Hollywood and other nearby cities, at their beautiful home at Honolulu and Los Angeles avenues.

Roses and other spring flowers in profusion adorned the Fowler home, and music, merry games and dancing were the pastimes of the evening.

Games were enjoyed in the living rooms of the house, after which the party repaired to the dancing pavilion in the garden, where Herbert Henning's orchestra furnished the music for the principal pastime of the evening. At midnight a bountiful supper was served by the hostess.

S. P. ENGINEER ENDS
54 YEARS' SERVICE

(By International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Quitting a job at the age of 75 after 54 years of service because the boss can't furnish him enough hard work—that's the story of the resignation of William Hood, dean of American engineers, as chief engineer of the Southern Pacific railroad.

With his company engaged in no large construction, Hood has explained to President William Sproul of the Southern Pacific company that he "thinks it is time for him to do something more active than fussing over unit costs and such things."

He will retire from the Southern Pacific on Tuesday, the 54th anniversary of the day when he joined the old Central Pacific construction crew at Sacramento, as an axe man.

on what is understood to be the largest pension ever paid by the company. Then he will open offices as a consulting engineer, offering his services to concerns with large engineering and construction problems to solve.

Hood has traveled on foot each of the 11,000 miles of the Southern Pacific and allied railway systems. Much of it he has covered more than once. He estimates that in connection with his official duties he has walked the equivalent of twice around the world.

What's more, he is still walking, for every Sunday finds him in the open country, usually alone, a camera over his back, tramping just for fun. Hood probably has spent more money than any other American engineer. How much it would total none can estimate. Someone suggested a hundred million dollars, but five minutes later it was shown that that figure wouldn't do at all. Hood himself has no idea.

Some of his greatest achievements include:

The Lucian cut-off across Great Salt Lake in Utah.

The Tehachapi loop in Southern California, which encircles a mountain peak with one tunnel above another in order to secure a grade.

The famous "S" line over the Sierran, California, mountains, where in 171 miles a train takes enough curves to turn around 70 miles.

Construction of the San Diego and Arizona railroad, which includes 17 tunnels through granite rock and was called by engineers "the impossible railroad."

He has built practically all of the Southern Pacific and subsidiary railroads, including the Southern Pacific of Mexico.

Hood at 75 is alert and in robust health. He never sits down excepting to sign his name. He works standing up and in his office is not in a chair more than 20 minutes a day.

MISS EVA DANIELS

Miss Eva Daniels of 324 West Colorado entertained at dinner Friday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Salo Desky and Mrs. Leo Strouse, all of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Desky are former residents of Glendale. Roses in profusion were used in the decorations. Places at the beautifully appointed table were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Desky, Mrs. Strouse, Mr. and Mrs. G. Phillips, Miss Reba Phillips, Harold W. Phillips, Victor W. Daniels and the hostess.

EDWARD AYERS
PASSES AWAY
AT AGE OF 83Name Linked With Early History of This Section of San Fernando Valley

Another pioneer of the San Fernando valley whose name was linked with the early history of the southern portion of our city when it was known as Tropic, passed to his reward Saturday when death claimed Edward Ayers at the age of 83. His home was at 215 East Palmer avenue, on a portion of what was once a 12-acre farm on which orchards of pear and apricot trees were planted. He was a member of the mutual water company organized by his fellow ranchers to distribute the water from Verdugo canyon that appertained to their lands, and also to sink the wells that supplemented the mountain supply. Of a gentle nature he was much interested in geology and archeology. His collection of minerals and treasures of the past being his chief interest in his latter years. He was a Hoosier, having been born in Danville, Ind., in 1837. He made the trip to this coast by way of the isthmus and 1857 found him in Eureka where he cast his vote for Lincoln. Idaho was visited but he decided California was the land of his choice and so established himself in Los Angeles, driving from his home to that city, with horse and buggy, rain or shine, for about 15 years or until the Pacific Electric railroad came through. An enthusiastic member of the Old Settlers' Association, he was always present at meetings and took an active part. Not many of his contemporaries are left, J. C. Sherer being one of the few who shared the pleasures and hardships of that early day. He had been a resident of this section for 38 years and is survived by his wife, Mary M. Ayers, and his daughter, Mrs. Leha Melrose, now of Bakersfield, who had the distinction of being the first white child born in Tropic.

Funeral services conducted by Masons and Odd Fellows will take place Tuesday afternoon at the Scovern Undertaking parlors, and interment will be at Grand View Cemetery.

TELEPHONE PARTY
A HUGE SUCCESSMore Than 200 Patrons Visit Local Plant on Friday and Inspect System

At the second of the receptions to patrons which were inaugurated last November by the local telephone company, more than two hundred visitors were welcomed Friday afternoon and evening by District Manager Fred Deal and his fellow employees in the various departments, of which he has general supervision. These visitors included children as well as men and women. One group was a class of twelve Y. M. C. A. boys, who were especially interested in the mechanical end of the plant. Women as a rule concentrated on the rest rooms and the operating department. There were also guests representing other companies that use light and power who welcomed the opportunity to inspect the system.

All employees who could be spared from their regular work were on the reception committee and acted as guides to show patrons about and explain details. First the visitors were taken to the basement, where the cables come in and where the storage batteries are located. From there they ascended to the offices and rest station of interest was the plant department, where all the wires enter for distribution to the switchboards. Here, W. D. Nields, wire chief, was the host who greeted the callers.

On the third floor the travellers found the operating department with its two big switchboards, "A," which receives all the calls and distributes them, and "B" which distributes the calls from Los Angeles. At these boards are employed at different hours of the day thirty-four operators, who put in 48 hours a week. Some work straight time, others do what are called "split shifts." Miss Helen Winkler as the chief of this department, welcomed all comers and pointed out the operators who served their phones. As a matter of discipline, and in obedience to strict rules, no operator was permitted to turn her head to even nod to a guest.

A larger crowd came between 7 and 9 p. m. than at any other period, and it included the more eager, interested visitors. Mr. Deal says that his company is more than pleased with the public interest shown and will probably make it an annual affair. It is no small credit to Mr. Deal and his associates that the idea originated here and was first tried out. It was such a success that accounts of the first reception were incorporated in matter sent out by the Division Superintendent to all the offices in the State and similar receptions are now being held all over the coast.

RECEIVE NOTICE OF
PRETTY WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Brewster of 400 West California, recently received a copy of the Ithaca (New York) Journal-News, in which was quite a lengthy account of the marriage of their niece, Miss Eleanor Miller George of Freeville, to Joseph Brackin Kirkland of Mississippi, in one of the prettiest weddings solemnized in Ithaca for a number of years. The ceremony was held in Sage Chapel of Cornell University. Two of the bridesmaids were daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Brewster, Misses Elizabeth E. and Virginia, the former of whom is a student in Cornell and the latter preparing for matriculation. Miss Elizabeth gained her entry on points received in Glendale Union High. Among the guests were Mrs. Wm. H. Brewster of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Charles W. Brewster of Wilmington, Del.

PHYSICIANS DISAGREE AS TO THE CAUSE OF DEATHCoroner Hoffman Declares Miss Vance Was Killed by Nicotine Taken Through Mouth—Physicians of the Health Board Certify to Diphtheria

(By International News Service)
CHICAGO, May 2.—Discovery of essence of nicotine in the vital organs of Miss Mary Vance, daughter of a wealthy Glencoe, Ill., dentist, who died in Los Angeles on April 4, led today to a disagreement between physicians as to the cause of her death that may become an important factor in the mysterious case.

Physicians of the California board of health certified that the cause of her death was diphtheria. Wort received here from Los Angeles says that the physician who diagnosed the case there reported diphtheria cultures and is positive that disease caused her death.

Coroner's Physician Burmeister of Chicago and Coroner's Chemist McNally, who made the posthumous examination of the body at the request of Coroner Hoffman, found two grains of nicotine and the coroner is confident the poison caused her death.

It was expected that Robert S. Lockhart, of Covington, Va., reputed fiancé of Miss Vance, would be brought here and questioned. Dr. Wm. H. Vance, father of the dead woman, declared he was convinced that his daughter had been slain and would demand punishment of her alleged slayer.

Vance and Coroner Hoffman were to confer today regarding procedure in the case.

Miss Vance, who was about 30 years of age, went to Los Angeles in March, 1920, to visit relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bert E. Emery. Enroute she became acquainted with Lockhart and a romance developed. Miss Vance told the Emerys they were engaged. Lockhart is said to have purchased a bungalow in Los Angeles and fitted it up as the "love nest" to which he was to take his bride.

Later Lockhart brought his two daughters from Virginia, it is said, and Miss Vance went to live with them in the bungalow. Miss Vance afterward became ill and an operation was performed on March 8 last. Lockhart, it is alleged, left Los Angeles on March 10, the eve of the day set for their wedding.

It was reported here today that Lockhart was at present at his former home in Covington.

"There is no doubt," Coroner Hoffman said today, "that Miss Vance was killed by nicotine taken through the mouth. This may have been accidental or suicide. It may have been murder. The facts warrant the fullest investigation."

TEACHERS TO PLAY
'DISTRICT SCHOOL'Will Use Proceeds to Defray Expenses of Delegate to N. E. A. Convention

Members of the City Teachers' Club have definitely decided on the play they will give June 4 at the High School as a matinee and an evening performance. It is to be "The District School" with a cast of about thirty. They are to meet Monday night to "do the casting" and rehearsals will soon begin.

Their director and coach is Mrs. Fannie Stockbridge, who has long been a resident of Glendale, an actress and director very favorably known in the profession, her experience having covered both the legitimate and film stages. Her last appearance in the "speakers" date back to the time when she closed an engagement in Chicago with the "Bird of Paradise" company to come to Los Angeles and create a character role in "What Next?" played at the Majestic in which Blanche Ring was starred. Mrs. Stockbridge has just finished an engagement at the Goldwyn Studio in a play of Rupert Hughes called "The Old Nest," in which she enacts the role of companion to the lead.

The Teachers' Club is very fortunate in securing her help in putting on the little drama. All members of the club who are not represented in the cast will assist in other ways, and it will be a truly representative affair which should greatly interest pupils and all friends of the school to whom it will be a novelty to see our teachers in dramatic roles.

The money realized will be used to defray the expenses of a delegate which the club desires to send to the N. E. A. which is to meet in Des Moines in July.

NEW HEATING PLANT

Work on the new heating plant for the Glendale Sanitarium is being pushed. The new boiler was bricked in some time ago and a place is now being made for the old boiler, which will be removed from the present plant. The building to house the boilers and other paraphernalia is well under way.

RED-LETTER DAY WITH GLENDALE MUSIC CLUBS

To the music lovers of our city, Friday, May 6, should be a red letter day because on that evening the Glendale Music Club will make its bow to the public in its first big program for which it has enlisted as soloists Mrs. Catherine Shank, soprano; Mrs. Enona Hopkins, harpist, and Mr. Elia Foglioli, tenor. Supplementing the work of these professional artists, who are residents of our city, will be contributions by the Girls' Glee Club of Glendale Union High; Nevin Quintet, representing the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, and the Glendale Madrigal Club. The concert which will take place at Glendale high, will be free to all members of the club and can be enjoyed by any person outside the club on payment of 25 cents.

The Glendale Music Club is young but it isn't little. Though so recently organized it "sprang full fledged" having now a membership of 182 and an honorable place in the sisterhood of music clubs now meeting in Los Angeles. It is also the parent of two auxiliaries—the Junior Music Club of 65 members, aged 14 to 20, and the Juvenile Music Club made up of youngsters from 6 to 14.

Its officers and promoters feel that the present enrollment is but the nucleus of an organization which may become very large for Santa Ana has a music association of 1500 and Glendale is known as a music loving town.

Mrs. Shank, who is a great favorite with Glendale artists is a resident of our city, but has a studio in Los Angeles. She has studied under the finest teachers in this country and abroad and is widely known in the fraternity of singers.

Mrs. Enona Hopkins, a pupil of Trammont, is a harpist of Chicago renown

PERMITS IN APRIL

Of the 200 permits issued during the month of April, 130 of them were for residences and four of these residences were for two families each, so that the month's building activities will accommodate 134 families. Quite a number of large and small buildings were started during the month also. The total for April, 1920, was only $127,517 against $23,177 for the preceding month, so April of this year is more than three times last year's total, though a little more than $75,000 less than that for March, 1921. One reason for March's large total each year is that many permits really ready in February are held over till after March 1 in order that the taxes for the current year would not be so greatly increased by the improvement of property. Below is a complete list of the April permits, which totalled $394,018, bringing the record for the first four months of the year to $1,209,941:

Mattison B. Jones Resettling Orange Grove and Im-

Mattison B. Jones is visiting San Dimas today to select orange stock to be planted on his Kenneth Road property. It consists of four acres of which are some old citrus trees which he is replacing with young ones. He will also devote a portion of the land to a family orchard in which he expects to plant twenty to thirty varieties of deciduous fruit. Next week he will begin the building of a garage which will not only accommodate two automobiles, but in addition afford living quarters for a gardener and chauffeur. Just when he will build a residence he does not know, but the present buildings on the place consisting of an old house and barn, are to be wrecked.

EDDY-KOHLER MARRIAGE VOWS

Ceremony Performed at Glendale First Presbyterian Church on Saturday

Miss Vida C. Eddy and Frederick C. Kohler were united in marriage by Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Glendale First Presbyterian church on Saturday.

The wedding was witnessed by Dr. G. T. Eddy of Los Angeles, father of the bride, and Mrs. Ida Kohler, mother of the groom, the party motoring over from Los Angeles to have the ceremony performed by Dr. Edmonds.

The bride is a sister of H. A. Eddy, formerly city engineer of Glendale, now engaged in contracting and surveying, and residing at 728 South Louise street. Mr. Kohler was a former resident of Glendale, and friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Kohler are extending their felicitations.

CLAPPER-SCHAEFFER HOME WEDDING

At a prettily appointed, quiet home wedding, Mrs. Mary E. Clapper of Glendale, became the bride of Joseph F. Schaeffer of Rockwood, Mich., last Friday evening. The ceremony took place at the bride's home, Rev. Stromberg of Los Angeles officiating.

The bride was attired in a becoming gown of white, and carried a shower bouquet of roses. There were no attendants.

Mr. Schaeffer is an ex-service man and is at present attending the University of California. A number of his fellow students were guests at the wedding.

Cecil Brunner, roses and ferns were used in profusion in the decorations of the home for the occasion and dancing was enjoyed after the wedding dinner which followed the marriage ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer will make their home in Glendale.

JEFF TO BOX AGAIN
(By International News Service)
"In this corner James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion of the world." (Prolonged cheering.) You may read this in the paper within a few weeks.

Los Angeles boxing promoters are getting up an old timer's night for the Irish Relief Fund and are doing their best to have Jim Jeffries appear in one of the bouts.

Jeff at present lives outside of Los Angeles on his big ranch and occasionally motors in to town with a truck load of milk.

Tom Kennedy, the New York heavyweight, is also out there working out daily in the movies. They want Jeff and Kennedy to mix in the main event of three rounds.

They are trying to have Eddie Hanlon and Jimmy Britt appear in the semi-final and the chances are that they'll succeed.

According to Garry Meyer, a Frisco fight fan, both Britt and Hanlon will be only too glad to help the show out.

"In their three-round fight at Frisco," writes Garry, "they went at it hammer and tongs, and Jack Welch, the referee, had to step between them three times in order to slow them up. There is still some feeling between the pair and both think they're good enough for a title yet. They would have settled their old grudge that night if Welch hadn't stopped and warned them occasionally."

Should Los Angeles succeed in grabbing these two cards, they can expect a bumper crowd.

Why not hold one in New York? Wouldn't it fill the old Garden?

We have more good old timers than any other city in the world.

No, but that's nothing new. Most of the fellows I know are up in the air about some girl or other."

WRITES OF BILLY SUNDAY MEETING

Miss Lillian Shropshire of 326 East Colorado, recently received a letter from her sister Birdie, who works for the Pacific Mutual Insurance Company in Cincinnati, Ohio, telling of the Billy Sunday meeting at progress there. She wrote that an auditorium seating 7000 was used, but proved inadequate, so it was enlarged to hold 10,000; yet it was crowded every night. A meeting for women and girls one Sunday evening drew so many that at 6 o'clock every seat in the auditorium was taken and by 8:00 the thousands of women and girls outside stormed the doors, broke through the police cordon and thronged into the aisles. Miss Birdie had visiting her that day a cousin from Chicago, who is another Miss Lillian Shropshire, and it was only by appealing to one of the company she had become acquainted with that entrance was gained. Sunday stirring the great city to its depths, Miss Birdie wrote.

Evangelist Brown Sets
Forth Type of Ideal Woman

Ofis Ironmonger, Mr. Brown preached on "Repentance."

After showing what repentance was not, he asked: "What is repentance? When you offer yourself to Christ Jesus, Christ will do His part.
If you are earnest and willing to quit your sins and willing to offer yourself to Christ, if you tried 16 years you couldn't do more than that."

The sermon of Evangelist Brown at the tabernacle Sunday morning, which was filled to overflowing, was on the two pillars of the Church of God, the Holy Day and the Holy Tithes. Said he:

"No man can steal God's day or God's dollar and escape punishment.
The tithes is binding on all for all is God's, but it is a mighty poor Christian who stops his giving with a tenth. The Jew gave three-tenths under the law. How much more ought you to give under grace? The children should be reared to practice tithing.
We have ditched God's plan and adopted our own, trying to run the church on a plan that would bankrupt a peanut stand. Tithing systematically practiced will build new churches everywhere and pay for them in a short time. Under our ungodly system of church financing the average wage of pastors is less than half that of the unskilled workman."

The afternoon service was a Sunday school mass meeting at which the preacher told the story of the raising from the dead of Jairus' daughter, the young man at Nain, and Lazarus.

BEASTS OF ZOO RESPOND TO MUSIC LIKE HUMANS

Some Like Jazz and Some Don't, While Soothing Notes
Calm a Rage in Man or Lion—Scientists Experiment and Learn Little

(By International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 2.—A party of scientists who witnessed the effect of music—real and alleged—on beasts of the jungle as represented at the Central Park Zoo are much wiser today. They merely found that animals react to musical strains much as humans do. That's all.

Music may soothe a beast—but not jazz music. That was demonstrated in the case of lions, bears, leopards and wolves when scientists from Columbia University, the American Museum of Natural History and the New York Zoological Park in the Bronx witnessed, by invitation, the effect of jazz music.

At the end of a delightfully amusing session no scientist present would venture to hazard a definite scientific opinion as to whether or not music appeals to the beasts of the forest.

Some Like It, Some Don't

Lions, tigers, leopards, hippopotami, monkeys, elephants, buffaloes, bears and other captives that make up the menagerie family in Central park were treated to a variety of music, and with varying effects. Some appeared to like it; others plainly showed that they didn't care a whoop for it.

Syncopating, tantalizing jazz, fox-trots, dreamy waltzes, smashing, crashing, blaring tunes were played. Trombone, saxophone, cornet, clarinet, violin, snare drum and bass drum made up the instruments.

The first number of the scientific concert was rendered in front of the quarters of Miss Murphy, the hippopotamus, in the lion house. At the first strains of a lively jazz she and her son Caleb promptly did a "Steve Brodie" into their tanks. They remained in the water, snorting, until the musicians left.

Helen, the lioness, and her offspring in adjoining cages—Edeue, Atkbar and Cleo—howled in derision at the jazz artists. Jim Coyle, head keeper, who knows his charges well, admitted that they were razing the musicians. Even Cornelius, the Bengal tiger, roared in rage and showed his teeth when they played in front of his cage. He couldn't stand it.

Leopard Shows Disgust

Bagheeta, the black leopard, the most vicious beast in captivity in this country, slunk in a corner of his cage as the strains of the "Ostrich Walk" floated through the lion house. He looked bored throughout the rendition of several lively jazz tunes, and Park Commissioner Gallatin suggested the band play something "weezy."

They gave him "Sweet and Low," but Bagheeta still remained passive. But when they played "Lead, Kindly Light," the leopard made a spring across the cage and snarled with all the fury in him. He could stand the jazz, but no hymns for him.

Then they tried it on the bruins—Jim, the Polar bear; Betsy, the Russian; Molly, the black and Buster the brown grizzly. Of all the animals, Jim seemed the most appreciative. He actually did a shimmy, starting the movement at his nose as he cavorted at the top of the cliff cave and winding up with a genuine demonstration of the terpsichorean art all over his body.

Elephants Enjoy It

Betsy and Jewel, the elephants, seemed to enjoy the music immensely, but Professor E. L. Davis of Columbia, pointed out that the pachyderms had probably followed many a circus band. So there was a reason for their enjoyment that could be easily explained.

REVIVAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tuesday morning at 10:30, Rev. John Brown will begin a series of four sermons on modern religions in which he will consider Mormonism, Russellism, Eddyism and Spiritualism. Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, banquet and talk for girls at the First Methodist Church. Saturday afternoon, women and girls only, addressed by John Brown on "Thinking White." Sunday afternoon, men and boys addressed by Mr. Brown on "Chickens Come Home to Roost."

"LYING LIPS" A SCREEN MASTERPIECE

Heralded by film critics as an unparalleled achievement, "Lying Lips," Thomas H. Ince's great drama of life and love, and his second feature for the Associated Producers' Life, attracted large audiences at the Palace Grand Theatre yesterday. House Peters and Florence Vidor are costarred in the leading roles, while a cast of eminent players forms the support. The production was directed by John Griffith Wray, under the personal supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

Mrs. C. L. Marlene reports that all tickets on sale in Los Angeles for the concert to be given at Trinity Auditorium under the auspices of the Federation of Music Clubs now in session in Los Angeles, have been sold and the only tickets remaining are those now on sale at the Glendale Music & Phonograph Company on North Dunn boulevard. Glendaleans who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity should lose no time in purchasing and if a sufficient number can be sold space will be reserved for the Glendale crowd in the auditorium.

CONSTIPATION and Gas Accumulation BANISHED

By Milton H. Berry's Anatomical Method

THE RIGHT WAY TO MANIPULATE THE BOWELS DISCOVERED—IT BRINGS THE SLUGGISH COLONS NEAR THE SURFACE
---and Corrects Constipation, Effecting a Permanent Cure

Constipation Eliminated Without Drugs, Diet or Exercise

A corrective which has been sought unsuccessfully for years has at last been discovered.

Constipation and gas accumulations can now be eliminated—completely banished—by Milton H. Berry's Anatomical Method.

After years of teaching physical education, helping thousands of sufferers, the paralyzed, the weak and the sick to normal health, Milton H. Berry has developed a method by which any person can cure himself of constipation and gas accumulation WITHOUT DRUGS, DIET OR EXERCISE. Every detail of this marvelous method has been thoroughly worked out in simplified form, so that anyone (even a child) can use the method in the privacy of the home and do better than a masseur, or any other manipulator, because one person will always involuntarily resist another person's touch.

Berry's Anatomical Method has passed the experimental stage. Before any printed announcement was issued about it, 40,000 men, women and children were restored to health by it.

IT IS, THEREFORE, A BIG, UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS.

Three weeks ago in The Press, the first printed announcement was made to the public. The response exceeded expectation. Two thousand orders have already been received, the most of them from housewives, stenographers, bookkeepers, store and office clerks, nurses, executives, lawyers, bankers and others following sedentary occupations.

These are now more than 12,000 persons who have used the Berry Anatomical Method. They have found out how to renew the life and the vigor of the colon muscles. They have once more become natural and regular in the all-important duty of bowel evacuations. The colon muscles are again fully nourished by the blood circulating through them. Congestion has passed, with the result of foul gas has been eliminated and it no longer flows back into the stomach and liver, causing indigestion or palpitation of the heart.

The price of Berry's Anatomical Method, complete, has been reduced to five dollars. Five dollars—the price of two osteopathic or massage treatments, or a few bottles of drugs. Think of the saving anyone can make in a few months if in the possession of Berry's Anatomical Method. Don't delay, send for it today, if you, or anyone in your family is troubled with constipation or gas accumulation.

DO NOT HESITATE

Those who, because of long, weary years of suffering from this annoying ailment, have any doubt that they cannot cure themselves are extended an invitation to call on Mr. Berry at his offices, Suite 401 Merritt Building, Eighth and Broadway, Los Angeles, where they will be shown proofs that will convince the most skeptical of the merits of his method.

Milton H. Berry's Success in Cases of Paralysis Unequaled

Twenty-two years ago at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, Milton H. Berry astonished the medical world by enabling Miss Mary E. Hawkins, a school teacher, to use her limbs after they had been paralyzed for twenty-five years. From Mt. Pleasant he moved to Des Moines, Iowa, and it was while there that he brought about the cure of Miss Lulu Murphy, formerly an art instructor at Drake University. This extraordinary case attracted the attention of prominent doctors from all over the Middle West because Miss Murphy had been totally paralyzed in both her limbs for over four years. Following Mr. Berry's instructions for four months, she walked out of the Methodist Hospital in a perfectly normal state of health. This cure attracted the attention of the famous Chicago surgeon, the late Dr. John B. Murphy, who prevailed upon Mr. Berry to move to that city.

This led to scores of persons suffering from paralysis to come to him for his teaching from all over the Middle West. A year ago, Mr. Berry decided to locate in Los Angeles, where he secured a suite of offices in the Merritt Building. His success since coming to Los Angeles is testified to by many prominent men and women who have given him letters which are on file in his office and which will be shown to anyone who is interested.

Mr. Berry does not claim to be a physician, nor does he treat cases. He is a teacher of corrective methods of physical education and his success is due entirely to his original method of teaching. Pupils come to him every day, some to be taught how to use their paralyzed limbs, others to gain in weight and become healthy and strong.

Milton H. Berry is also the originator of applying corrective methods of physical education to victims of infantile paralysis, a method which is now used successfully in all hospitals for crippled children.

Children whose bodies are crooked are becoming straight through his skill.

Prominent Omaha Man Who Was Paralyzed Travels 1500 Miles to Get Milton H. Berry's Personal Services.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 4, 1921.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

"Last August I had a stroke of paralysis which left my right leg and arm badly affected. It was difficult to use either. I could scarcely walk, and then only with the aid of a cane. I came to Los Angeles to receive the advice and services of Milton H. Berry, the Physical Educator, who was recommended to me as an expert in cases like mine. I have been under his instructions for the past month and a remarkable change has taken place in my condition. I have regained almost the normal use of my leg and arm, and my general health has greatly improved. No one can possibly make a mistake by seeking Mr. Berry's services, as I consider him a remarkable man of unusual ability."
